

K-love gives me a an optional listening station for me and my family. There is no other local station with this kind of music. If K-love is effected by the implementation of LPFM broadcast, I would be very dissapointed. K-Love is a high priority to public intrest because they play music that the whole family listens to, they also give us information about other christian new around the country and around the world.